Eligibility for federal, state and institutional grants, as well as student loans and Federal Work-Study, is evaluated each year upon filing a new FAFSA. It is important that you file your FAFSA as soon as possible after it becomes available on October 1st of each year to be considered for the maximum amount of financial aid.

If you have received a scholarship, be sure to check your scholarship renewal criteria.

A breakdown of your financial aid award(s)

Using your financial aid to pay for UTEP

Paydirt Pete, we've done the math for you! The estimation below shows how you can use your financial aid to attend UTEP.

2023-2024 ESTIMATED COSTS

Direct costs
Charges you will see on your bill
	Fall	Spring	Total
Tuition & Fees	$4,254	$4,254	$8,508
Minus (-)
Total gift aid (Grants and Scholarships)	$0	$0	$0
Remaining balance	$8,508
Total remaining balance owed to UTEP	$8,508

If you are not eligible for gift aid, you may need to borrow a Federal student loan.

Below is the loan amount that you may need to borrow to cover your remaining costs. Please note that this amount is only a recommendation and you are not obligated to borrow a loan.

Do you have to borrow the entire amount of the loan(s) listed in your award package?

No, you do not have to borrow all of the loans offered to you. You have the option to borrow all, none, or a portion of the total loan(s) offered. If loan funds are needed to pay for your education, only borrow what you need.

Using loans to pay the remaining balance
	Total
Federal Direct Subsidized Loan	$5,500
Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan	$2,000
Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan*	$1,008
Total remaining cost	$0
