PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

National Association of Social Workers
The National Association of Social Workers (NASW) is the largest membership organization of professional social workers in the world. Please join us at the NASW Annual Practice Conference, The Aging Boom: Is Your Clinical Practice Ready? Conference program highlights topics from a social work perspective.

American Red Cross
The American Red Cross shelters, feeds and counsels victims of disasters; provides nearly half of the nation's blood supply; teaches lifesaving skills; and supports military members and their families. The American Red Cross is a charity, not a government agency, and depends on volunteers and the generosity of the American public to perform its humanitarian mission.

Center Against Family Violence
The Center Against Family Violence is committed to providing a 24-hour emergency hotline ((915) 593-7300), emergency shelter, advocacy, individual and family therapy and support groups to survivors of domestic violence through the Emergency Shelter and Family Resource Center. CAFV’s Battering Intervention and Prevention Program provides its participants with group therapy used to confront abusive behavior. Ritzy Raggs Resale store serves as a drop-off location for donations and its proceeds benefit operation costs at the Center Against Family Violence.

ASWB: Association of Social Work Boards
The Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) is the association of boards that regulate social work. ASWB develops and maintains the social work licensing examinations used across the country and in several Canadian provinces, and is a central resource for information on the legal regulation of social work. Through the association, social work boards can share information and work together. ASWB is also available to help individual social workers and social work students with questions they may have about licensing and the social work examinations.

Texas Department of Family and Protective Services
The Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) was created with the passage of House Bill 2292 by 78th Texas Legislature, Regular Session. Previously called the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services, DFPS is charged with protecting children, adults who are elderly or have disabilities living at home or in state facilities, and licensing group day-care homes, day-care centers, and registered family homes.

Texas Department of Human Services Department. of Aging & Disabilities Services
The Texas Department of Aging and Disability Services (DADS) was created to administer long-term services and supports for people who are aging as well as for people with intellectual and physical disabilities. DADS also licenses and regulates providers of these services, and administers the state's Guardianship program. DADS began formal operations on Sept. 1, 2004.
