The University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) cordially invites you to participate in the Graduate and Professional Schools Fair. UTEP is America’s Leading Hispanic Serving Institution with a diverse and talented population of more than 24,000 students eager to advance in their academic journeys. Make plans to join us on Tuesday, October 4, 2022 from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM (MST). Your participation will provide your organization with the opportunity to increase your visibility with our diverse student population.

UTEP facts of interest:

- UTEP is America’s Leading Hispanic Serving Institution, proudly reflecting the demographic composition of the binational region serving an 83% Hispanic student population.
- UTEP is designated as a Carnegie R1 Research/Doctoral University
- UTEP serves its primary constituency—residents of far West Texas, Southern New Mexico, and Northern Mexico—with 74 undergraduate programs, 71 master’s programs, 23 doctoral degree programs, and a growing portfolio of online degrees.
- UTEP’s academic colleges and professional schools (links to academic colleges):
  - College of Engineering
  - College of Science
  - College of Business Administration
