EMPOWERING LIFE LEADERS

We are committed to enhancing your development in various aspects of your professional life. For new college graduates, many of you first-generation college students, this includes learning information on how to lead in your financial future well-being, community engagement and how to thrive in your chosen career. Sign-up in Job Mine.

LEADING YOURSELF
When people talk about leadership, the focus is most often on others—how leaders serve, empower, and motivate. What if instead of thinking about leadership in relation to others, we concentrate on the leadership we can take within our own life?

Join Wells Fargo representatives to learn more about budgeting and saving. Learn how to manage your money and day-to-day spending.

Tuesday, November 1 | 2-3 p.m. | Andesite Room 102B - Union East Building, First Floor

LEADING YOUR FAMILY
Family leadership is the capacity to interact with those closest to you with purpose. This happens when you gain the knowledge and skills needed to succeed for the benefit of your family.

Join Perches Funeral Homes representatives to discuss end-of-life issues and inform yourself on how to lead family to prearrange a better farewell benefitting those you love.

Wednesday, November 2 | 2-3 p.m. | Andesite Room 102B - Union East Building, First Floor

LEADING YOUR CAREER
Learn to be proactive and not just wait for opportunities to happen. When you own your career, you create the opportunities you want.

Join an FBI representative and learn about how her diverse life experiences and background helped her lead her career and transition from an Assistant School Principal to an FBI Agent.

Wednesday, November 9 | 2-3 p.m. | Andesite Room 102B - Union East Building, First Floor

LEADING YOUR COMMUNITY
The role of a community leader is not to fix all the community's problems but to work together with community members. Learn how you can lead and have a lasting impact in your community.

Join a United Way representative to learn about being a community leader, from low involvement to high involvement.

Monday, November 14 | 2-3 p.m. | Acacia Room 102A - Union East Building, First Floor