UTEP STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Phi Alpha Honor Society

The purpose of Phi Alpha Honor Society is to provide a closer bond among students of social work and promote humanitarian goals and ideas.
Student Association of Social Workers (SASW)

The Student Association of Social Work (SASW) at UTEP is an organization aimed at:

- Enhancing the students’ learning and skill development in social work.
- Encouraging social change through production and involvement in university projects and events.
- Promoting social and economic justice through participation in the multicultural and bi-national community of EL Paso.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

National Association of Social Workers

The National Association of Social Workers (NASW) is the largest membership organization of professional social workers in the world. Please join us at the NASW Annual Practice Conference, The Aging Boom: Is Your Clinical Practice Ready? Conference program highlights topics from a social work perspective.

Clinical Social Work Association

It is for licensed social workers who work as professional mental health clinicians. It is one of the top professional organizations; CSWA has a stated goal of uniting the professional of clinical social workers to implement mental health parity within then health care system, fairness of pay within the industry, and uniting the profession with standards and policies.

American Red Cross

The American Red Cross shelters, feeds and counsels victims of disasters; provides nearly half of the nation's blood supply; teaches lifesaving skills; and supports military members and their families.

The American Red Cross is a charity, not a government agency, and depends on volunteers and the generosity of the American public to perform its humanitarian mission.

International Federation of Social Workers

It is an international organization for social workers that has been recognized by the UN’s Economic and Social Council and UNICEF. This organization runs differently from others on this list in that only other social work organizations can join. However, social workers who belong to an organization that is part of the federation do have access to international opportunities, such as working for the UN and more.

Center Against Family Violence

The Center Against Family Violence is committed to providing a 24-hour emergency hotline ((915) 593-7300), emergency shelter, advocacy, individual and family therapy and support groups to survivors of domestic violence through the Emergency Shelter and Family Resource Center. CAFV's Battering Intervention and Prevention Program provides its participants with group therapy used to confront abusive behavior. Ritzy Raggs Resale store serves as a drop-off location for donations and its proceeds benefit operation costs at the Center Against Family Violence.

ASWB: Association of Social Work Boards
The Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) is the association of boards that regulate social work. ASWB develops and maintains the social work licensing examinations used across the country and in several Canadian provinces, and is a central resource for information on the legal regulation of social work. Through the association, social work boards can share information and work together. ASWB is also available to help individual social workers and social work students with questions they may have about licensing and the social work examinations.

The Network for Social Work Management

Its an international organization that has a mission to advance social work management and leadership. Membership to this organization is free and is offered to both professionals and students.

Society for Social Work and Research

It is one of the only organizations for social workers that has its focus on research in the Social Work sector. The sole purpose of this professional organization is to advance and disseminate research.

Texas Department of Family and Protective Services

The Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) was created with the passage of House Bill 2292 by 78th Texas Legislature, Regular Session. Previously called the Texas Department of Protective and Regulatory Services, DFPS is charged with protecting children, adults who are elderly or have disabilities living at home or in state facilities, and licensing group day-care homes, day-care centers, and registered family homes.

Texas Department of Human Services Department, of Aging & Disabilities Services

The Texas Department of Aging and Disability Services (DADS) was created to administer long-term services and supports for people who are aging as well as for people with intellectual and physical disabilities. DADS also licenses and regulates providers of these services, and administers the state's Guardianship program. DADS began formal operations on Sept. 1, 2004.
