FINANCIAL & SOCIAL SUPPORT SERVICES (FSSS)
Academic Advising Center
2060 Hawthorne Street
fsss@utep.edu • 915-747-5290

The Financial & Social Support Services (FSSS) program was established to assist students increase financial literacy and cultivate the skills necessary to make sound financial decisions. The FSSS program is staffed by Master of Social Work (MSW) interns who work to educate and empower UTEP students by bridging students' academic, social, and financial realities in new ways. FSSS interns assist students in establishing broader knowledge and perspective about financial decision-making, identifying potential resources and alternative options to resolving financial and social challenges, and assess students' needs for financial and social services, referring students to appropriate in-depth services both on and off-campus.

FOSTER HOMELESS AND ADOPTED RESOURCES (FHAR) PROGRAM
www.utep.edu/fhar
Academic Advising Center
2060 Hawthorne Street
fhar@utep.edu • 915-747-5290

FHAR's mission is to provide foster, homeless and/or adopted college students resources to facilitate the college experience through holistic advising, education and advocacy.

Services provided through the FHAR program include academic advising and mentoring, on and off campus advocacy, social service referrals for low cost housing, food insecurities, mental health needs, and financial aid assistance. The FHAR program provides students with school supplies, necessary personal hygiene items, household items, bus passes, and textbooks from our small library student donated books.

OFFICE OF學生 FINANCIAL AID
www.utep.edu/student-affairs/financialaid
Mike Loya Academic Services Building, Room 204
studentfinancialaid@utep.edu • 915-747-5204

Unexpected situations may merit a review and re-calculation of a student's financial aid package. If a student and/or their family recently experienced a unique, documentable circumstance that affected the student or family's ability to contribute towards educational expenses, students are encouraged to immediately visit with a Financial Aid Advisor.

PAYDIRT LOAN
Office of Student Financial Aid - Student Loans
Mike Loya Academic Services Bldg., Room 204
studentloans@utep.edu • 915-747-5204

Life happens and sometimes students might be faced with financial challenges or unexpected situations like car repairs, daycare expenses, or loss of a job. If students need immediate assistance, the UTEP Paydirt Loan is a short-term loan that can help students stay enrolled at UTEP and continue their education.

STUDENT HEALTH AND WELLNESS CENTER
www.utep.edu/chs/shc

UTEP FOOD PANTRY
www.utep.edu/foodpantry
Memorial Gym, Room 105
foodpantry@utep.edu • 915-747-8053

The UTEP Food Pantry offers support and assistance to UTEP students who are dealing with food insecurity. Food insecurity refers to having limited food available, including a reduction in the quality, safety or variety of food or ability to acquire food in a socially acceptable manner. At UTEP, we recognize that food insecurity is an obstacle to student success and think it's crucial that students' basic needs are being met. UTEP students who are enrolled in courses in the fall or spring semesters are eligible to use the Food Pantry. Students registered for the fall semester have access to the pantry during the summer. Students may have access to the Food Pantry with their Miner Gold Card.
