GTF WORKSHOP: MAKE-UP OPPORTUNITY

Attention Cohorts 4 and 5,

If you did not attend a workshop during the Fall 2022 semester, you are currently on probation and at risk of losing your scholarship for the following semester(s). In order to be removed from probation, you must complete one of the following make up sessions.

Option #1 - Deadline: May 5, 2023

Attend a second GTF Workshop with a different Cohort in addition to your own workshop in the spring of 2023. Information regarding these workshops will be posted on our Instagram @utepechs. Please keep an eye out!

Option #2 - Deadline: May 5, 2023

Attend an extra event/lecture offered by UTEP that is of the same educational value as a GTF workshop (event must be at least an hour in length). To receive credit, submit a picture as proof of attendance. You must stay for the entire event. You can register for a session via <https://events.utep.edu> or <https://minetracker.utep.edu/events>

Please submit pictures to: <https://utep.questionpro.com/t/AW2zRZwNd2>

Suggestion: There are several Career Center Workshops being offered in January which we highly encourage you all to attend. These workshops will focus on career and professional development and how to position yourself for success. If you are interested, you can register here: <https://minetracker.utep.edu/events?query=university%20career%20center>

Option #3 - Deadline: January 20, 2023

Cohort 4: Write a one page paper, double-spaced telling us about the different job opportunities in your field and which one you are most interested in pursuing upon graduation. Include any requirements you need to obtain these positions (e.g. internships, certifications, masters degree) and salary ranges (if available).

Cohort 5: Write a one page paper, double-spaced telling us about your five strengths from the StrengthsFinder 2.0 Assessment and how they can be applied in your life. Do you agree with your strengths, why or why not?

Please submit essays to: <https://utep.questionpro.com/t/AW2zRZwNd2>
