ECHS NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

COMING UP ON MARCH 21ST & 22ND

Get ready for an exciting
start to your university
journey!

Orientation offers new students an introduction to the college and its educational offerings, as well as insights into campus life. It includes campus tours, meetings with various departments to explore student services, and opportunities to connect with both new and current students.

During orientation, students will meet with advisors, register for classes, and gain insights into their majors and potential undergraduate opportunities. Additionally, they will learn about student resources and services offered by UTEP, as well as opportunities for leadership development and career advancement.
