Asset Information Form

In order to continue the review of your application for financial aid, your school needs clarification of the value of your assets as of the date you originally filed the 2024-2025 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Please note that the value of assets cannot be changed unless the original amount reported on the FAFSA was reported in error.

Helpful Hints:

Net worth: Current value of an asset minus debt.

Investment value: The current balance or market value of these investments as of the date you filed the FAFSA.

Investments: Includes real estate (do not include the home you live in), UGMA and UTMA accounts, trust funds, money market funds, mutual funds, certificates of deposit, stocks, stock options, bonds, other securities, installment and land sale contracts (including mortgages held), commodities, etc. Investments also include educational benefits or education savings accounts (e.g., Coverdell savings account, 529 college savings plans, and the refund value or 529 prepaid tuition plans. For a student who does not report parental information on the FAFSA, the accounts owned by the student (and/or student’s spouse) are reported as student investments. For students who must report parental information on the FAFSA, the accounts are reported as parental investments, including all accounts owned by the student and all accounts owned by the parents for any member of the household. For more information about reporting educational savings plans call 800-4 FED-AID.

Investments DO NOT include: the home in which you live, the value of life insurance, retirement plans (401K plans, pension funds, annuities, non-education IRAs, Keogh plans, etc.), investments also do not include UGMA and UTMA accounts for which you are the custodian, but not the owner, or cash, savings, and checking accounts.

Business and/or investment farm value: Includes the market value of land, buildings, machinery, equipment, inventory, etc. Business and/or investment farm debt means only those debts for which the business or investment farm was used for collateral. Do not include a family farm or family business with 100 or fewer full-time or full-time equivalent employees. Investment farm value does not include the value of a family farm that you (or your spouse and/or your parents) live on and operate.
