The minimum amount of words for this essay is 1,000 words and the maximum is 2,500 words. Please answer the following questions:

- Describe your personal, academic and professional goals and challenges as a college student.
- Please describe how local businesses such as Tacotote! Could support the UTEP Edge efforts and the overall formation of character to prepare someone to enter the competitive job pool?
- What, as a border city, are we lacking to position students like yourself in a more competitive position for better jobs? What would be needed to recent graduates to stay here in the region and work instead of looking to other major cities for opportunities?
