Introduction

Leadership development, academic achievement, and service to the community are key elements for success on any university campus. The Student Engagement & Leadership Center (SELC) believes wholeheartedly that students who excel in these areas deserve to be recognized for their accomplishments. The UTEP Student Leadership Awards are crafted to celebrate and pay tribute to the countless hours and contributions student leaders and student organizations make to the campus, the community, the region, and beyond, throughout the academic year.

Agent of Change Award Guidelines

Purpose

Leadership is necessary because Change is necessary. That statement is the root of the Agent of Change Award. This award exists to recognize the UTEP students who have dedicated over 100 hours investing in their capacity to create change in themselves, in their organizations, and in their communities.

Eligibility

The Agent of Change Award is earned by student leaders who have completed the three programs outlined by the Social Change Leadership Series. The recipients of this award will be the students who demonstrate both competence in and application of the Social Change Model for Leadership Development, and their Top 5 CliftonStrengths. There is no limit to the number of recipients who may earn this award, provided they meet all criteria and score 86.4% or above on their Social Change Leadership Award essay.
