1. From the desktop, click on the wireless icon at the top right of the screen.

2. From the list of available connections, select utepsecure. This will open a prompt with fields to enter your credentials.

3. Enter your UTEP user name and password. Check the "Remember this network" checkbox.

4. Click the "Join" button.

If your authentication passes, then you are connected to the utepsecure wireless network.